International Software and Hardware License Agreement

IMPORTANT:

Please read the following license agreement carefully before installing the development system package. The rights of use are sold only on the condition that the customer agrees to the following license. If you do not agree to the terms of license, you may return the package.

In return for the payment of the one-time fee for these software and hardware products, the customer receives from TEMIC Telefunken microelectronic a license to use the product subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The enclosed software and hardware package may be used on any PC capable of executing this package, provided you have the original diskette and documentation.
2. The corresponding software product may be used on only one computer at any one time (SINGLE USER LICENSE).
3. The software product may only be duplicated for the purpose of backups for the customers own use only.
4. No copies of the software product may be produced for use on subsequent computers, for sale to third parties or for any purpose other than the purpose expressly permitted in paragraph 3 above.
5. This license and development system product may be transferred to a third party, only with the prior written consent from TEMIC, provided the third party agrees to all terms of this License Agreement and Customer does not retain any copies of the software product.
6. Purchase of this license does not transfer any rights, title or interest in the software product to the Customer except as specially set forth in this License Agreement. Customer is aware that the development system product is covered by the copyright laws. The Customer may be held responsible for any infringement of copyright laws.
7. TEMIC reserves the right to terminate this license upon breach of this agreement. In the event of termination, the Customer will return all components of the development system including all copies of the installation diskette to TEMIC.
8. Limitation of Liability

TEMIC shall not be liable for any damages including without limitation damages from loss of profits, interruption of business, and for any other incidental or consequential damages of any kind whether under this agreement or otherwise.

9. We reserve the right to make changes to improve technical design and may do so without further notice. Parameters can vary in different applications. All operating parameters must be validated for each customer application by the customer. Should the buyer use TEMIC products for any unintended or unauthorized application, the buyer shall indemnify TEMIC against all claims, costs, damages, and expenses, arising out of, directly or indirectly, any claim of personal damage, injury or death associated with such unintended or unauthorized use.
